Dear Transfer Knights and Prospective Knights:

Welcome to Arlington Council 2473! It was surely obvious to you that our Council is very different from most other councils. As Brother Knights at our council, many amenities and benefits will automatically be conferred unto you. There truly is something for everyone at our council in that regard.

Similarly, due to the resources and creativity at our disposal, we also have a wide array of charitable and fraternal missions of which you can be a part. Just as there are benefits to belonging to Council 2473 that fit all different interests, we have various charitable and fraternal programs that fit varying budgets, time commitments, and interests. Prospective Knights will learn, and transfer Knights have already learned, that Charity is the principal tenet of our order. Likewise, to help your Council leadership guide you toward areas of interest, we require that you participate in the brief survey below.

INSTRUCTIONS: Please specify your level of interest in each of activity categories below.

1. Parish Service/Faith Activities – Parish and Faith activities operate to strengthen our sense of fraternity through our shared faith and to fortify our Council's relationship with the parishes we serve. Examples of such activities include, but are not limited to, serving as a parish usher, serving as a parish liaison, volunteering at a parish picnic, participating in the Council's daily rosary, joining the Faith Committee, etc.

Very Interested, please contact me regarding opportunities

Possibly Interested, I would like to learn more about this activity

Not interested in this Council activity at this time

2. Group Volunteer Opportunities – Many of our charitable and fraternal initiatives are group-oriented. As one might guess, these are usually charitable activities where our senses of fraternity and unity shine through to maximize the benefit to our community. Examples of such activities include, but are not limited to, participating in the Thanksgiving food drive, assisting in the function of Honor Flight events for retired veterans, volunteering at community organization events on the property, etc.

Very Interested, please contact me regarding opportunities

Possibly Interested, I would like to learn more about this activity

Not interested in this Council activity at this time

3. Individual Service Projects – For those who prefer or simply do not have the time to commit to a group volunteer opportunity, there are service projects that can be performed on your own that can contribute to our Council and our charitable mission. Examples of such activities include, but are not limited to, Box of Joy, donation to the Toys for Tots Christmas Toy Drive, participating in KofC training programs promulgated by Supreme Council, etc.

Very Interested, please contact me regarding opportunities

Possibly Interested, I would like to learn more about this activity

Not interested in this Council activity at this time

4. Service Activities with the Columbus Club – As a member of Council 2473, you are automatically a member of the Columbus Club of Arlington. Likewise, there are service activities that intersect between these two partnered organizations. Examples of such activities include, but are not limited to, volunteering as a Redcoat waiter, grilling/serving food at our holiday events, etc.

Very Interested, please contact me regarding opportunities

Possibly Interested, I would like to learn more about this activity

Not interested in this Council activity at this time

5. Council Leadership Service – A critical element to the function of any Council is to have dedicated men take up the responsibility of leadership. Leadership roles within the Council vary in size and time commitment making this a versatile service opportunity. Examples of such activities include, but are not limited to, serving in one of the several Council Officer positions, leading a Council committee as chairman, serving on a Council committee, etc.

Very Interested, please contact me regarding opportunities

Possibly Interested, I would like to learn more about this activity

Not interested in this Council activity at this time

We thank you for participating in this survey. Your addition to our Council is a valued one and we look forward to calling you Brother Knights of Arlington Council 2473!

Sincerely,

Membership & Member Engagement Committees
